I think that Washington's claim is not necessarily limited to nonimmigrants, though. For example, adjustment applicants who can't leave and return with advance parole.

The State's remaining challenge is thus limited to "people who have been here and have, overnight, lost the right to travel, lost the right to visit their families, lost the right to go perform research, lost the right to go speak at conferences around the world" absent concerns that the President's Order will prevent them from resuming their temporary, nonimmigrant stay in the United States.

We need to put that claim from Washington within the proper nonimmigrant, temporary visitor context.

We're saying we're adjudicating them as usual. But if they use them to leave, that would be a problem for them under the EO.

They asked that I reach out to OGC and request that I be included on calls related to the appeal of the Washington District TRO. I may not need to be on all the calls - just the ones that touch upon USCIS operational issues.

I'm not sure who the OGC POC is for that case. Would it be Nader? Anyway, if you could, please find out and forward on this request to whoever that is.

Subject: RE: Deliverable Due 2/17--Sec. 4a EO: Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States

Everyone—

As Julie mentions below, FOD was designated to co-lead with FDNS the interview portion of Section 4 (a) Implementing Uniform Screening Standards for All Immigration Programs. The relevant interview portions of Section 4(a) are as follows:

1. The development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews;
2. A mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be;
3. A process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest;
4. Amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; and
5. A mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States.

I know a lot of work has been done already in various manners that impacts this goal and can be utilized for this task. We would like to convene the process for articulating how the interview process has been and/or can be enhanced (best practices, new policies, new tools/systems, resources, and/or additional questions) to ensure we are using our interviews in the best way to inform our eligibility, credibility and national security/public safety determinations.

Lisette Kvortek will serve as the FOD working group coordinator and will work with the FDNS POC to organize the work. I'd ask that folks self-identify as a responsible party and name a POC representing your office. Since work is due on the 17th, we'd like to get started asap.

Thank you.

Subject: Deliverable Due 2/17--Sec. 4a EO: Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry into the United States

Good morning,

Thank you for your work on the deliverables already completed. I appreciate everyone's timely responses.

The next big deliverable we have is in regards to Sec. 4a and 4b of the Protecting the Nation from Foreign Terrorist Entry EO. Proposals related to the items below are due to me by COB Friday, February 17, 2017. FDNS has the overall lead on this deliverable, but there will also be several working groups that may be co-coordinated by other directorates with FDNS. Here is the specific language from the EO:

"This program will include the development of a uniform screening standard and procedure, such as in-person interviews; a database of identity documents proffered by applicants to ensure that duplicate documents are not used by multiple applicants; amended application forms that include questions aimed at identifying fraudulent answers and malicious intent; a mechanism to ensure that the applicant is who the applicant claims to be; a process to evaluate the applicant's likelihood of becoming a positively contributing member of society and the applicant's ability to make contributions to the national interest; and a mechanism to assess whether or not the applicant has the intent to commit criminal or terrorist acts after entering the United States."

Because there are a lot of pieces to this section and because the pieces affect different directorates, we will likely need a few working groups to tackle this one. As discussed at the meeting yesterday, these are the proposed working groups:

- Interviews (FOD to co-lead)
- Identity Document Database
- Identity verification
- Form revisions (OP&S proposal attached)
- Immigrant integration (OoC to co-lead)

As of now DHS has not provided a template or format for the proposals (and I'm told one will not be coming this week). Should I receive a template, I will pass it along, but I think for now we can proceed with just writing up the proposal.

The deliverables tracker has been updated on the ECN and now includes all the items and target completion dates that were provided in the DHS Implementation Plan. To summarize some of the upcoming deliverables (Foreign Terrorist Entry EO deliverables should go to me. Steve Duggan is the POC on the Border Security and Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior EOs):

Subject: RE: EO Guidance

To be clear, we are only holding up where the bene is from one of the 7 and is overseas. We are holding whether they are asylee or refugee follow to joins. As I understand it, we aren't actually approving them but are rather "provisionally" approving them subject to final approval after interview. We should get clarification if the provisional approvals are subject to the hold as well, or if they can continue. Also, I would think denials could proceed but we'll hold all pending further guidance.

I think the issue we still need clarification on is whether that hold for I-730 beneficiaries outside the US would only be for refugee follow-to-joins (all nationalities) and asylee follow-to-joins who are nationals or duals of one of the 7 countries.

And please note that under our current guidance staff can continue to process the I-730s for asylee following to join who are not in the 7 counties. We will of course be reviewing that process just as we review the process for all other benefits as directed under the order, while we continue to process.

I think the issue we still need clarification on is whether that hold for I-730 beneficiaries outside the US would only be for refugee follow-to-joins (all nationalities) and asylee follow-to-joins who are nationals or duals of one of the 7 countries.

FEB 2 2017
Memorandum

TO: All USCIS Employees

FROM: Lori L. Scialabba Lori Scialabba
Acting Director

SUBJECT: Guidance Concerning Executive Order on Immigration

On January 27, President Trump signed an Executive Order entitled "Protecting The Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into The United States." This memorandum provides guidance from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regarding the impact of this Executive Order on various immigration benefit requests.

All USCIS employees should be aware of current guidance from DHS, specifically:

1. Section 3(c) of the Executive Order does not affect USCIS adjudication of applications and petitions filed for or on behalf of individuals in the United States regardless of their country of nationality. Section 3(c) also does not affect applications and petitions by lawful permanent residents outside the United States, or applications and petitions for individuals outside the United States whose approval does not directly confer travel authorization (including any immigrant or nonimmigrant visa petition). This includes, but is not limited to, the matters discussed more specifically in paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 below.
2. Applications to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) may continue to be adjudicated, according to existing policies and procedures, for applicants who are nationals of countries designated in the Executive Order.
3. USCIS will adjudicate Refugee/Asylee Relative Petitions (Form I-730) for all beneficiaries, from any country of nationality, currently in the United States according to existing policies and procedures. Further guidance will be issued with respect to beneficiaries currently outside of the United States.

4. USCIS will continue refugee interviews when the person is a religious minority in his or her country of nationality facing religious persecution. Additionally, USCIS will continue refugee interviews in jurisdictions where there is a preexisting international agreement related to refugee processing. USCIS will not approve a refugee application for an individual who we determine would pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.
5. USCIS will continue adjudicating all affirmative asylum cases according to existing policies and procedures.

Memorandum

TO: All USCIS Employees

FROM: Lori L. Scialabba Lori Scialabba
Acting Director

SUBJECT: Guidance Concerning Executive Order on Immigration

On January 27, President Trump signed an Executive Order entitled "Protecting The Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into The United States." This memorandum provides guidance from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regarding the impact of this Executive Order on various immigration benefit requests.

All USCIS employees should be aware of current guidance from DHS, specifically:

1. Section 3(c) of the Executive Order does not affect USCIS adjudication of applications and petitions filed for or on behalf of individuals in the United States regardless of their country of nationality. Section 3(c) also does not affect applications and petitions by lawful permanent residents outside the United States, or applications and petitions for individuals outside the United States whose approval does not directly confer travel authorization (including any immigrant or nonimmigrant visa petition). This includes, but is not limited to, the matters discussed more specifically in paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 below.
2. Applications to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) may continue to be adjudicated, according to existing policies and procedures, for applicants who are nationals of countries designated in the Executive Order.
3. USCIS will adjudicate Refugee/Asylee Relative Petitions (Form I-730) for all beneficiaries, from any country of nationality, currently in the United States according to existing policies and procedures. Further guidance will be issued with respect to beneficiaries currently outside of the United States.

4. USCIS will continue refugee interviews when the person is a religious minority in his or her country of nationality facing religious persecution. Additionally, USCIS will continue refugee interviews in jurisdictions where there is a preexisting international agreement related to refugee processing. USCIS will not approve a refugee application for an individual who we determine would pose a risk to the security or welfare of the United States.
5. USCIS will continue adjudicating all affirmative asylum cases according to existing policies and procedures.

Attached is the first cut of information we'd want from other countries to assist in our adjudications process based on the conversation we had this afternoon. For this tasking we just need a list that SCO can incorporate into the larger report they are drafting for this deliverable. Because the final report needs to be provided to the WH within 30 days, please provide any comments/edits/additions by COB tomorrow, February 2, 2017.

Hi Kristie,

Attached are 2 letters that we have received addressed to AD1 regarding the EO. The Department has received several letters addressed to S1 as well and they all have been assigned to OGC.
CBP has received similar letters.

We cannot respond to the letters addressed to AD1 until we receive language from the Department. DHS is preparing a template letter for these Congressional letters that once approved, we can use.

At this time we are "holding" for the language.
